

RPS Safety and Risk division's privacy policy.

This web site (www.bowtiexp.com.au or www.sarp.com.au) is maintained for the purposes of web-serving the BowTieXP and Incident Investigation software and news.

RPS Safety and Risk division respects the privacy of all those who contact us via this site. Our simple policy is that, subject to the following, we will not wilfully disclose any personal information regarding our clients or web page visitors to unrelated parties without first obtaining permission, unless required by law.

Does RPS Safety and Risk division disclose information to anyone else?

If you request information from us regarding BowTieXP or Incident Investigation software, we will hopefully use your contact details to service your request and occasionally, perhaps, advise you of news and developments in that area. So we keep a record of your enquiry and may forward it to Governors B.V. , who are the software developers for these products.

We may also refer your details to a single reseller in your area, and will endeavour to first seek your permission.

We Don't:

- We definitely do not use "cookies" or accumulate statistics on your activities.
- We do not record the IP addresses from which users access our site.
- We do not on-sell the information to anyone.

What Information does RPS Safety and Risk Collect?

RPS Safety and Risk Management does not collect any personal information about you that you have not already provided.

We receive and reply to email from users on a regular basis. For record-keeping purposes we retain copies of all incoming and outgoing email. Information in the email we receive or send will not be disclosed to any third party without the permission of the sender, either express or implied, unless required by law.

Extent of the Privacy Policy – limited to our site

The RPS Safety and Risk Management site and search database contain a number of links to external sites. Please be aware that these external sites are developed by people over whom we have no control, and we are not responsible for their privacy practices. This Privacy Policy applies only to the RPS Safety and Risk division's site. We encourage you to familiarize yourself with the privacy policy of any Web site you visit which collects personal information, and to exercise discretion when providing such information.

Changes to the Privacy Policy

We may change this Privacy Policy from time to time at our discretion and without notice. If we do, an updated version of this Privacy Policy will be made available on this site so that you remain aware of the data we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances we disclose it.

Further information

Please feel free to contact the RPS Safety and Risk team if you have any questions, comments or would like more information. Our phone number, +61 8 9211 1111 (GMT+8 hours) is an alternative to one of the enquiry forms available on our site.

This Privacy Statement is version 1.0, and replaces all previous versions.
